

PPM Data Are Now the Only Ratings Currency for Pittsburgh, PA!

PPM™ became the official ratings currency in Pittsburgh, PA on October 9, 2009.

All Arbitron clients who conduct business in Pittsburgh, PA are contractually required to use PPM data for their transactions; they may no longer use any Diary data, even for averaging.

You May Now Use Pittsburgh, PA Pre-Currency Data

Arbitron surveyed Pittsburgh, PA with PPM during the July and August survey months. Both of these months were considered "Pre-Currency" because they occurred before September 2009, the first official release of PPM data.

Now that PPM official currency for Pittsburgh, PA has been released, you may use July and August PPM data for media planning, buying and selling purposes.

You are not permitted to create multimonth averages by mixing Diary and PPM data. However, you are welcome to create multimonth averages using July, August and September 2009 data.
